DEDICATION

As we thoughtfully and affectionately dedicate this volume of our school yearbook, the Senior Class of Farm Life School takes great pleasure in dedicating this the XVIII Volume of the Millstream to John Franklin Kite, our own classmate, who has given to us and his many friends a beautiful example of faith, hope, spirit and determination. No finer legacy could be given to anyone and in return our fondest hopes go with him.

THE SCHOOL SONG

In Craven County's chosen spot,
We have casted in our lot,
Dear Old Farm Life School to thee we lift our song,
Near thy level fields so fair,
We shall breathe the balmy air,
While with merry hearts the chorus we prolong,

As the morning sunbeams' light,
Greets thee o'er the forest height,
So our tribute, we as freely to thee bring.
Youth's true homage full and free,
We thus gladly render thee
Dear old Farm Life School thy praise we freely sing.

To thee, guardian of our youth,
Faithful guide to light and truth,
We, thy children, bring our songs of grateful praise,
And when we shall leave thy halls,
We shall ne'er forget they calls,
Dear old Farm Life School the scene of happy days.

Chorus

Sing we a song of our dear Farm Life School
Fondly we love thee still.
And wherever we may be,
Fond mem'ry turns to thee,
And our many friends we have at Farm Life School.

GRADE MOTHERS

We wish to show our sincere gratitude to our Grademothers whose loyalty and devotion to us have made this, our Senior year, a pleasant one, with the fondest of memories.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1954

The halls of Farm Life School were awakened in September of 1950 with the happy shouts and hurried feet of 77 green freshmen. We were directed to our rightful classrooms after a noisy search and settled under the direction of Mrs. Edith B. Johnston and Mr. George Wood, our advisors for that first year.

Officers elected at our first class meeting to guide us through our freshman year were: President--J. L. Peterson, Jr., Vice-President--Jack Taylor, Secretary and Treasurer--Clarence Powell.

The highlight of our freshman year was entertaining the Seniors with a party and scavenger hunt.

Our sophomore year began with an eager class of 75. We were very proud of having lost only two of our fellow classmates. Our directors for this second year were Miss Joyce Harris and Mr. L. L. Daniels. We elected for our class officers: President--Jack Taylor, Vice-President--J. L. Peterson, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer--Lois McLawhorn.

The big event this year was a weiner roast given for the Seniors at Minnesott Beach.

We returned in September, 1952, with a large happy class of 66 Juniors. We began this big year with Mrs. Joy Sasser and Miss Sara Jo Hege as our directors. First, we elected officers as follows: President--J. L. Peterson, Jr., Vice-President--Patricia Laughinghouse, Secretary--Peggy Ballenger, and Treasurer--Betty Lou Crawford.

Immediately we ordered our class rings. We were very excited about this because we could hardly wait to get them on our fingers.

In November, we made a historical tour of Williamsburg, Virginia, and stayed overnight at the Williamsburg Lodge. Mr. E. P. Blair and Mr. Jesse Hinton accompanied us.

We next selected a play, "BOLTS AND NUTS", for our Junior Class to give. Miss Caroline Guthrie and Mrs. Joy Sasser were our directors. The play proved successful when we gave it on February 24, 1953, and we discovered that we had quite a bit of talent in our class.

We began planning the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. The theme of "The Gay Nineties" was used. The banquet was given in the lunchroom, a tavern in the Gay Nineties, with a barber-shop quartet and Charleston dancers to entertain.

The Prom was given in the Gymnasium, where we danced to the music of Vicki Lee and her orchestra.

To end a very busy year of hard work we sunned and burned on the sands of Atlantic Beach for a half-day. We truly enjoyed that year of work and fun.

When our class entered the halls of Farm Life School in 1953, this last year, only 56 enrolled. With Mrs. Vivian Taylor and Mrs. Joy Sasser as our advisors, we chose as our leaders: President--J. L. Peterson, Jr., Vice-President --Patricia Laughinghouse, Secretary--Sandra Hicks, and Treasurer--Betty Lou Crawford.

The annual staff was elected and began work.

As this, our final year gets underway, we look forward to our senior play, and though we hate to see our school days end, we eagerly await our trip to Washington, D. C., the Junior-Senior Banquet, Alumni Banquet, Woman's Betterment Reception, Baccalaureate Sermon, Class Day Exercises, and last, but that long awaited night of the year--Graduation.

CLASS PROPHECY

After a hard day's work as secretary to the editor of "Glamour" magazine, I went home to eat and spend a quiet, restful evening. I ate supper and decided to read a book. While reading the book I dozed off and dreamed of my classmates with whom I had graduated from Farm Life School.

First, I saw J. L. Peterson and John Franklin Kite as big business executives of the DuPont Company. For their secretaries, they had Ellen Gaskins and Lucille Franks. Some of the workers of DuPont with important positions were Richard Gladson, Ray Nobles, and Donald Coward.

After leaving the firm, I went up town to find Mavis's Beauty Shoppe, which I discovered was owned by Mavis Kirkman, a very prosperous beauty operator. Her beauticians were Shirley Wilson, Jean Morris, and Mary Edna Russell, who specialized in more hair or no hair at all.

In an adjoining building was a very popular dress shop, owned by Virginia Pappas. Modeling in her shop were Betty Lou Crawford, Muriel Whitford, and Edna Gaskins, known for being the most lovely models on earth.

Further on down the street was the Pate and Dudley Law Office, whose prominent lawyers, Mr. Ronald Pate and Mr. Joe Dudley, specialized in "divorces while you wait". They were doing a thriving business.

Miss Patsy Sammons was a traveling saleswoman, whose ability to run about made her one of the most prominent saleswomen in the world. Miss Sammons circled the globe twice a day and in addition had time to play any acting part the stage had to offer.

Miss Peggy Ballenger was a well-known Home Demonstration Worker. She was a perfectionist in this field of work, which enabled her to make full usage of the old phrase, that "the way to a man's heart is through his stomach."

A vocalist in the popular song field was Miss Doris Rose Bryan, whose professional name was "Tootsie, the Cutie". Most of her victims were men with black wavy hair. It seems that she had had much practice in making men swoon at Farm Life School. The songstress was carrying all the men out of the world with her record version of "C'est Si Bon". Her manager was Samuel Cutler, a man who knew his job when he could remember what it was.

One of Hollywood's most promising new-comers was Miss Patricia Laughinghouse, a lovely actress with a great deal of brains. Her latest picture was "The Dope", in which she played the leading role.

Driving buses in Hollywood for Rodney Wall's Bus Company were Clifton Norman, David Manning, and Bobby Whitford. What better combination of slow but sure drivers would you want? A perfect combination for safety!

The most famous author for years to come was Mr. Billy Butler, who wrote "The Story of My Life". Twenty chapters of it dealt with courtship and marriage. He was considered as the best known authority in this field. Over a million copies of his book were sold in one year.

Another great writer was Gene Prescott who had twelve good comic books to his credit.

While working on the Raleigh NEWS AND OBSERVER, Mr. Earl Wright was voted Best Editor of the Year. His articles on ignorance were widely read by every member of his class. He has always known all about it, and why shouldn't he? Some reporters on the paper were Charles Spruill, News Reporter; Terry Witherington, Sports Reporter; Anna Lancaster, Fashion Reporter; and Betty Ann Lewis, Gossip Reporter (our second Louella Parsons). Photographers for the paper were Donald Arthur and Charles Broadway. Somehow or other they always had a habit of snapping something so photography fitted their desires.

Mr. Jack Taylor and Mr. John Laughinghouse had coached a football team which hadn't lost a game in five years. They had developed a new formation known as the "Spread Formation". Their men were spread all over the field and the opponents didn't know who was in formation and who wasn't, which enabled them to completely overwhelm their opponents. This explained their fine unbeatable record.

Miss Frances Johnson was the world's greatest basketball player. She guarded so well that the First National bank gave her a job on their armoured car.

Going out west, I saw the great bronco-buster, Earl Cousins, alias "Rubber Man Cousins", the only man when thrown off a horse could bounce back into the saddle. His picture and name were on all the posters advertising the colossal Wild West Rodeo.

Phillip Morris owned a great dude ranch, called the "Rocking 'L' Ranch for Range Weary Travelers". This ranch was a good place to stop and rest one's weary bones. He also offered special advice to the love-sick and love-lorn. He had gained his experience in this field with the many exciting romances that he had had at Farm Life School.

The "Grub Stake" Restuarant was owned by Russell and Haywood Toler. It was known for the best doggone grub in the west. Horse meat was their specialty.

I was surprised to see John Franklin Buck operating a chain of Western Theaters. His managers were Bobby Walker, Wilton Wood, and Jack Witherington. This gave them the opportunity to take a seat and see all of the movies free rather than stand at the door and peep in as had been their usual custom.

In the field of medicine was Scientist Larry Toler, who had discovered the only cure for growing hair on a bald plate. He was awarded the Nobel Prize for his amazing formula.

A fellow scientist who worked with Dr. Toler, was Mr. Clarence Powell, upon whose head the Doctor experimented. Mr. Powell now wears a lovely toupee.

At Duke Hospital, I saw nurses Peggy Turnage and Edith Hinson walking with Chief of Staff, Harvey Lee Harris. Angels of mercy they were--all three.

Earl Barrow was elected the next President of the United States. In his campaign speech his greatest words were: "Me for President. Youse can't go wrong!"

In the religious field were Evelyn Nobles, and Peggy Ormond, who went to Europe as missionaries to help the poverty-stricken people. They had done a good deal to soothe the nerves of those people and to establish better international relations.

When leaving Europe, I suddenly awoke to find that I had dozed off, and had been dreaming, but I was glad to see my classmates again, if only in a dream. Sighing, I got up to retire for the night, for the next day would be a busy one for me.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the Senior Class of 1954, being of sound mind and able body, after four years of high school life, do hereby bequeath all our worldly possession, moral virtues, and intellectual attainments to those we leave behind.
Donald Arthur leaves his ability to keep his homework up to Jimmy Smith.
Peggy Ballenger leaves her northern accent to Ann Smith.
Earl Barrow leaves his friendly smile to Leslie Mills.
Charles Broadway leaves his broad shoulders and many muscles to John Thomas Whitford.
To Jonnie Gaskins, Doris Rose Bryan leaves her position on the basketball court.
John Buck leaves Farm Life School. To where? Nobody knows!
Billy Butler leaves his heart to Jackie Williams.
Earl Cousins leaves his many hair-styles to Robert Earl Cleve.
Donald Coward leaves his ability to make two years of schooling in one year to David Whitford.
Betty Lou Crawford and Edna Gaskins leave the key to the supply room, congratulating the persons lucky enough to operate it next year.
Samuel Cutler leaves his tall figure and wavy hair to Noah DeBruhl.
Joe William Dudley leaves bus No. 17 to George, his brother, hoping that he doesn't have as much trouble with it as he has had.
Lucille Franks leaves her talent for writing boys who are in service to Phyllis Ann Boyd.
Ellen Gaskins leaves her small waist line and good figure to Jeannette Fulcher.
Richard Gladson leaves his ability to play basketball to Olin Sammons.
To Delano Hill, Harvey Lee Harris leaves his will to keep quiet during his classes.
Sandra Hicks leaves her sweet and friendly ways to Effie Roberson.
Edith Hinson leaves her ability to control her temper to Jean Sutton.
Frances Johnson leaves her temper to Vivian Lockhart.
Mavis Kirkman leaves her ability to get along with her sister to Martha and Mary Cauley.
John Franklin Kite leaves his ability to get a girlfriend at anytime to Gene Ross.
Anna Lancaster leaves her good grades to Betty Lou Civils.
John Laughinghouse leaves his athletic talents to Walter Hoyle.
Betty Ann Lewis leaves her love for chemistry to Timmy Heath, hoping he can do better than she did.
John Harvey Lilly leaves to William Edward Cleve all his notes for being late to class.
David Manning leaves Farm Life School with No Regrets.
Jean Morris leaves her ability to stay on the honor roll every month to Kathleen Boyd.
Phillip Morris leaves Hazel James to all the lucky boys at Farm Life School.
Evelyn Nobles leaves her "goldilocks" to Emogene Willis who tried so hard to have some.
Ray Nobles leaves his mechanical mind to Joe Lewis.
Clifton Norman leaves his passing grades to Laurie Lee Kite.
Peggy Ormond leaves her lovely singing voice to Betsy Smith.
Virginia Pappas leaves her friendly ways to Clell Smith.
Ronald Pate leaves his ability to get along with students and teachers to Bobby Whitford.
J. L. Peterson leaves his position in Mr. Blair's office to Edward Earle Lancaster.
Clarence Powell leaves quite a few girls at Farm Life School with broken hearts.
Gene Prescott leaves his seat in Algebra II to Sylvia Taylor.
Mary Edna Russell leaves her ability to keep quiet in class to Gladys Wetherinton.
Patsy Sammons leaves her place on the "Gossip Column" in the school paper to Lois Ann Sutton.
Charles Spruill leaves his knowledge of English and typing to Larry Jones.
Jack Taylor leaves his private seat in the detention hall to Walter Barrow.
Haywood Toler leaves Bus No. 22 to Charles Dixon with instructions to watch out for Joe Lewis.
Larry Toler leaves his witty ways to Mike Russell.
Russell Toler leaves his love for having his pictures made to Bobby Lewis.
Peggy Turnage leaves her love for bus drivers, especially No. 43, to Emily Grace Russell.
Bobby Walker leaves his ability to be in French II on time to Maurice Booth.
Rodney Wall leaves Farm Life School to the mercy of all the boys at Epworth.
Bobby Whitford leaves his seat in economics under Mr. Hinton to Jimmy Arthur.
Muriel Whitford leaves her love for Washington to Mary Jo Purser and Shirley Wilson.
Shirley Wilson leaves Farm Life School so maybe now the teachers won't get so mixed up on just which Shirley Wilson they're talking about.
Jack Witherington leaves his ability to keep a girlfriend to Frank Haskins.
Terry Witherington leaves his long legs to Graham Witherington. Now maybe he can get where he is going.
Wilton Wood leaves his bashful ways to Luby Mills.
Earl Wright leaves his ability to be able to make cute remarks to Wesley Morris.
Pat Laughinghouse leaves her honor of writing the Last Will and Testament to some lucky Junior.
We do herewith name and appoint Pat Laughinghouse executor of this document. In witness whereof, we, the Senior Class, do hereunto set our hands and seal, this twenty-eighth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand, nineteen hundred and fifty four.

SPORTS

Barbara Ann Smith, Beth Taylor, Sandra Hicks, Lois Ann Sutton, Linda Butler.

CHEERLEADERS

After a brief period of reorganization, the cheerleaders of F. L. S. have made rapid strides this year.

Perhaps, more so than in recent years and the result has been excellent. Favorable comments from non-partisan individuals have attested to their fine work.

Led by Sandra Hicks, senior, whose interest and enthusiasm never waned, supporters of Farm Life School can be assured of plenty of cheers for their ball teams. Other cheerleaders are Lois Ann Sutton, Linda Butler, Barbara Ann Smith, and Beth Taylor.

FOOTBALL

The football team of Vanceboro, under the coaching of Coach Ed Thompson, had one of its best seasons this year. The team played good ball during the whole season. There were not any serious injuries. The Red Raiders won five games, lost two and tied two. The team, with much co-operation, speed, and spirits, were runner-ups in the Coastal Conference. Three of the boys on the team made All-Conference and honorable mention on All-State.

The boys who played their last games for Farm Life School are: Earl Barrow, John Laughinghouse, Earl Wright, Terry Witherington, Jack Taylor, Bobby Walker, Vernon Wingate, and Sammie Cutler.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The ranks of the Red and White got off to a bad start this year because of work going on in our recently completed gym.

However, the team has given the fans plenty of thrills with their excellent play and has shown outstanding ability at times.

Some of the best teams in this section have been met and found the Raiders hard to handle and before the season closes this team may yet find its place among some of the best teams in the school's history.

Graduating this year are such stalwarts as: Doris Rose Bryan, Patricia Laughinghouse, Patsy Sammons, Anna Lancaster, and Frances Johnson.

The 1953-1954 Vanceboro Red Raiders, with a veteran line-up, have not been quite as impressive as it had been hoped for. However, the team has shown on numerous occasions that it can hold its own with the best in this section of the state. As the Annual goes to press, things are brightening up even more, and the followers of the Red and White are very hopeful that both the Coastal Conference and the County championships will come our way. The team's record so far is nine wins and five losses. Seniors who are completing their last season are: Clarence Powell, John Buck, Sammie Cutler, Jack Taylor, Earl Wright, John Laughinghouse, Richard Gladson, Terry Witherington, and J. L. Peterson.

BASEBALL

Under the direction of Coach Thompson, with most of last year's starting line-up and some promising newcomers, Farm Life should have a successful season this year.

Those playing their last season are Earl Cousins, Earl Wright, Bobby Walker, John Laughinghouse, Richard Gladson, Sammie Cutler, and Larry Toler.

CHORAL CLUB

The Choral Club, under the direction of Mrs. Charlene Solliday and Mrs. Verta Richardson, has made rapid strides this year. Among its accomplishments is the Christmas Pageant, in which the club sang traditional Christmas selections.

The club is planning a Pageant, "America In Song" to be given in the near future.

We wish the Choral Club great success in this and all other future undertakings.

BAND

For the first time in more than 20 years, a band has been organized and is actively engaged in work in our Vanceboro schools. Thus, another milestone has been reached. There are at present approximately thirty-five members in the band, only one of whom has had actual band experience before.

Much progress has been made. Actual concert appearances have been tentatively planned, as the Annual goes to press.

It is hoped that the coming year will see these members out-fitted in a uniform of traditional school colors, red and white; and that it will mean a deepening of our school spirit. Three Cheers for the band!!

FUTURE FARMERS

The Vanceboro F. F. A. Chapter has this year moved into its new Agriculture building.

The Chapter is progressing nicely under the supervision of Mr. Thomas Duboise, who is serving his twentieth year as advisor of the Agriculture Department.

Officers: President, Phillip Morris; Vice-President, Joe Dudley; Secretary, Larry Toler; Treasurer, Jack Witherington; Reporter, Richard Gladson.

SCIENCE CLUB

The 1953-54 Science Club of Vanceboro Farm Life School was organized under the supervision of our science instructor, Mrs. Vivian Taylor.

It was the unanimous choice of all to take as our project the study of photography and developing of films. This project was begun last year and because of the intense interest we decided to finish the project this year. We are making great progress in this interesting program. President, J. L. Peterson; Vice-President, Anna Lancaster; Secretary & Treasurer, Janet Taylor; Reporter, Peggy Ballenger.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club is an organization of school leaders from every class who are well-trained, loyal and able assistants in running the libary. This year the club, under the leadership of Miss Parrish, has met monthly in an effort to better actualize their motto, "To Serve."

Officers are: President, Carolyn Baysden; Vice-President, Betsy Smith; Secretary & Treasurer, Mary Alice Smith; Reporter, Jean Morris.
